

Place-Based Summer Institute

June 24–27, 2024 | Old Stone House Museum & Historic Village

a partnership with VREC, the Old Stone House Museum and Vermont Folklife

MONDAY, JUNE 24

Leveraging the Power of Place to Build Awesome Projects

Facilitator: Peter Stratman, Cabot School

Target Audience: Middle and High School

TUESDAY, JUNE 25 & WEDNESDAY JUNE 26 (TWO-DAY WORKSHOP)

Documenting Everyday Life

Co-Facilitators: Mary Wesley and Kate Haughty, Vermont Folklife

Target Audience: Middle and High School

THURSDAY, JUNE 27

Doing Documentary – A Primer for Place-Based Learning

Facilitator: John M. Miller, Documentary Photographer and Educator

Target Audience: Middle and High School (adaptable to higher education)

Daily schedule

- 8:30–9:00 Registration, refreshments and networking
- 9:00–noon Morning Workshop
- 12:00–1:00 Lunch, tour of the museum, and resource sharing
- 1:00–3:30 Afternoon Workshop

Logistics

COST: $220 per day. Sign up for one, two or all three workshops.

LOCATION: Old Stone House Museum and Historic Village, Grammar School, 109 Old Stone House Road Brownington, Vermont 05860

REGISTER: Go to vtruraledu.org/professional-development for workshop descriptions & registration

Vermont
RURAL EDUCATION
Collaborative

vermont
folklife

Supported in part by:

The Neil & Louise
Tillotson Fund